THE SITUATION IN THE PASS FROM CITIZEN'S STANDPOINT

Coal like any other commodity has a market price, and no party, firm, company or union can hope to sell it above that price, much less to a corporation such as the C.P.R., who are probably the largest buyers of steam coal in the Dominion, or even the world. The market price is set at which it can be produced for, plus the quality and cost of transportation to a given point.

The market price of coal here is what it can be produced for at Fernie, plus the cost of transportation. Deduct the difference in value of the quality—one practically offsets the other. Therefore, coal to be sold here at market value must be sold under the Fernie price and produced under the Fernie cost, and therefore the wage scale must be somewhat similar.

I understand that the C.P.R. are in the market for 900,000 tons. Supposing the market price to be three dollars a ton, this would mean $2,700,000, of which amount probably two million dollars would go directly or indirectly to wages. As there are in the neighborhood of 1800 miners in the district, this would mean an average wage to each man of over $1000 for the summer months, which is usually their slack months.

The cost of living could be considerably reduced if everything was put on a cash basis and kept there.

From the Coleman paper we learn that the book accounts of the merchants of the district total some $900,000. The interest on this amount alone in worth $72,000 a year to the merchants at 8 per cent, and to those who do not pay spot cash for their goods considerably more. This is not allowing one cent for losses. This interest loss and bad debts are both added to the cost of living, or the merchant cannot continue in business. Take it for granted that the merchant is forced to add from ten to twenty per cent to his goods to offset the costs he suffers carrying book accounts and bad debts.

A cash basis would not only save the consumer this 15 to 20 per cent, but the merchant would do considerably more business, as he would save many thousands of dollars of cash from going to mail order houses, such as the T. Eaton Co., and the grocers, who pay spot cash for their goods and sell for cash, meaning a big reduction in the cost of living made from both ends if the merchants did the same here.

Government assistance is now in the hands of the provincial government, and a government composed of farmers, who pay a wage of probably under $50 a month for their help, is not likely to have much sympathy for men who draw a much larger scale of wages.

We see little prospects in the nationalization of mines, as the nationalization of railways has brought the Dominion government near their limit, both in borrowing and in taxation, and has cost the government high yearly deficits and an annual cost of over sixty million dollars, and it is probably impossible for them to undertake another such load, or anything that may turn out to be such a load. The Alberta government has added to their yearly deficit by nationalizing the telephone, and from past experiences the governments will likely hesitate in nationalizing anything except liquor.

A CITIZEN.

Starting with Saturday morning of next week, April 11th, Mr. S. Trono, our local watchmaker and jeweler will conduct a mammoth "Hidden Treasure Sale," the first of its kind to be put on here. Such sales are proving very popular, and one of the most successful of late has recently been held by Mr. Powell, of Coleman. Watch for bills and big ad in our next issue.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Blairmore Board of School Trustees was held at the school house on Friday evening last. There were present: Chairman L. Dutil, W. H. Chappell, F. Wheatley, W. A. Beebe, A. Hamilton and Secretary Gresham. The minutes of previous regular meeting, as well as of two special meetings, were read and approved. The following accounts were passed for payment: Blairmore Enterprise $41.20, West Canadian Collieries (for coal) $21.50, J. R. Gresham (insurances) $40.55, Stamps $2.00, Blairmore Hardware Co. $117.50.

Complaint was made that the A. P. Police had on at least one recent occasion driven an auto past the West Ward school premises at a wild speed, scattering children in all directions. Matter will be taken up with the proper authorities.

Account of Dr. Hackney, for services rendered in the recent examination of school children for eye, ear, nose and throat deficiencies, was given consideration and upon motion it was ordered that a cheque for three hundred dollars be forwarded as full settlement of his account.

On motion, guest instruction at the school will be discontinued for the present.

Regarding insurance on school buildings, Mr. Hamilton moved that the secretary write the firm carrying most of the insurance on local buildings, asking that they send a representative here to re-appraise the properties with a view to readjustment of insurance. Carried.

Capt. Beebe moved that the chairman and secretary be empowered to sign cheques and vouchers on behalf of the district, as required by Section 34 of the Bank Act. Carried.

Question of Mr. Wheatley, regarding stocking of school supplies, was brought up. Mr. Wheatley had figures at his disposal, as did also Secretary Gresham, but upon motion by Mr. Hamilton, the matter was ordered laid over to be considered at a special meeting of the Board to be held on the night of Friday, April 3rd.

The Board was addressed by Mr. Bremner, inspector of public schools, who reviewed clearly the work being done by the various classes and teachers. Mr. Bremner suggested that the Blairmore Board fall in line with the boards at Hillcrest and Coleman in trying to arrive at a solution of the problem of retardation.

MINERS ARE ANXIOUS TO RETURN TO WORK

A very special meeting of the Bellevue Local of the U.M.W. of A., was held on Monday evening, when it was decided, after a lengthy discussion, to appoint a delegation of eight members to interview the management of the West Canadian Collieries to ascertain if there was anything that could be done to give the miners more work; also to learn what the company has to offer as a basis of wages for the future. The vote taken stood 130 to 90 in favor of the proposition.

Similar action was taken by the members of the Blairmore Local Union at a meeting held on Tuesday afternoon. This committee of eight has no power to act beyond obtaining information as above and to report back to a mass meeting of the union.

It is confidently believed that this movement is the first step in the right direction and that peace terms will be arrived at in the course of a few days.

Mr. E. Russell, who since the coming into effect of the new Alberta Liquor Control Act has been looking after the local distillation of beer for the Silver Spray Brewing Company, left here for Calgary last week end.

DEATH OF JAMES HUNTER

The death occurred at Calgary, on Tuesday of James Hunter, father of Mr. J. F. Hunter, now of Calgary and formerly of Blairmore, at the age of 88 years.

The remains were taken to Nanton, where interment takes place this afternoon.

The late Mr. Hunter was born December 18th, 1836, at Rockside, Ontario. He was the youngest of nine children born to James Hunter and Agnes Tait, who settled in Caledonia, Ontario, over a hundred years ago. He is survived by one sister, Agnes McConnell, of Ingleside, Ontario, who is 92 years of age.

Mr. Hunter was married to Annie Hagerman in 1858, and three of their five sons now survive: J. H. Hunter, inspector of schools at Sherbrooke, Quebec; Henry J., a farmer at Regina; and John F., of the customs staff, Calgary. The latter was for a number of years pastor of Central Baptist church, Blairmore.

Mr. Hunter came to Lethbridge from Ontario in 1901 and in 1902 homesteaded two miles from Nanton. Mrs. Hunter died ten years ago, since which time he has lived mostly in Calgary. He united with the Baptist church in Elderslie some fifty years ago and became one of the charter members of the Nanton Baptist church.

We understand that the offices and large staffs that have been maintained in the cities of Edmonton, Calgary and Lethbridge for the handling of income tax returns are to be abolished immediately and that henceforward the various customs officers will be prepared to accept returns, furnish receipts, etc. Returns for this district will be received by Mr. H. H. Griesbach at the local customs office.

A Romance of the Spanish Main
CAPTAIN BLOOD
by RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Viagraph picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Peter Blood, a rebel-convict under King James, becomes a buccaner with headquarters at Tortuga. He is in love with Arabella Bishop, daughter of the governor of Tortuga from Levasseur, a French ruffian. This forces him ships and men for his enterprises. King James sends to the West Indies Lord Julian Wade as an emissary to make peace with piracy. Arabella is on the same ship, the Royal Mary.

She had turned to face him. She was pale to the lips, and her hazel eyes were blazing, as she cut into his apologies for Blood.

"They must, indeed, if his other associates allowed him to live after that."

"Oh, the thing was done in fair fight, I am told."

"Who told you?"

"A man who sailed with them, a Frenchman named Calves, whom I found in a water-side tavern in St. Nicholas. He was Levasseur's lieutenant, and he was present on the island where the thing happened, and when Levasseur was killed."

"And the girl? Did she say the girl was present, too?"

"Yes. She was a witness of the encounter. Blood carried her off when he had disposed of his brother-buccaneer."

"And the dead man's followers all loved it?" He caught the note of incredulity in her voice, but missed the note of relief with which it was blent. "Oh, I don't believe the tale. I won't believe it!"

"I honor you for that, Miss Bishop. It strained my own belief that men should be so callous, until this Calves afforded me the explanation. Blood purchased their consent, and his right to carry the girl off. He paid them in pearls that were worth more than twenty thousand dollars each." His lordship laughed again with a touch of contempt. "A hand some price."

"Your Calves seems to have been accurate enough. Alas!"

"You are sorry, then?"

"As we are sorry to hear of the death of one we have esteemed. Once I held him in regard for an unfortunate but worthy gentleman. Now—"

"Such a man is best forgotten."

And upon that she passed at once to speak of other things.

The friendship which it was her great gift to command in all she met grew steadily between those two in the little time remaining until the event befell that marred what was promising to be the pleasantest stage of his lordship's voyage.

The marplot was the mad-dog Spanish admiral, whom they encountered on the second day out, when half-way across the Gulf of Gonaves. A shot from the Milagro got among some powder stored in the Royal Mary's forecastle and blew up half the ship almost before the fight had started. Before the men of the Royal Mary, their captain killed and a third of their number destroyed with him, the ship, yawning and rocking helplessly in a crippled state, the Spaniards boarded her.

In the captain's cabin, under the poop, to which Miss Bishop had been conducted for safety, Lord Julian was seeking to comfort and encourage her, with assurances that all would yet be well, at the very moment when Don Miguel was stepping aboard. Fortunately, Miss Bishop did not appear to be in desperate need of the poor comfort he was in case to offer. The cabin door flew open and Don Miguel strode in. Lord Julian span round to face him and clapped a hand to his sword.

The Spaniard was brisk and to the point.

"Don't be a fool," he said in his own tongue, "or you'll come by a fool's end. Your ship is sinking. Come, all of you, aboard my ship." Don Miguel invited them, and strode out. As for the survivors in that ghastly shambles that had been the Royal Mary, they were abandoned by the Spaniards to their own resources. Let them take to the boats, and if those did not suffice them, let them swim or drown. If Lord Julian and Miss Bishop were retained, it was because Don Miguel perceived their obvious value. He received them in his cabin.

"Look," said Miss Bishop, pointing, "she is English, and she comes resolutely on."

Lord Julian commanded himself with difficulty to supply them. Then haughtily he demanded to know, in his turn, the name of their aggressor.

"I am Don Miguel de Espinosa," he answered. "Admiral of the navies of the Catholic King."

"Will you tell me, then, why you behave like a damned pirate?" Lord Julian asked. "It will cost you dear!" "All things are possible. Meantime it is your own lives that will cost you dear. Colonel Bishop is a rich man, and you, milord, are no doubt also rich. I will consider and fix your ransom."

"And you have the impudence to call yourself the Admiral of the navies of the Catholic King!" stormed his lordship.

"It is that I treat you English heretic dogs just as you English heretic dogs have treated Spaniards upon the sea, you robbers and thieves out of hell. I have the honesty to do it in my own name, but you, your perfidious heads, you send your Captain Blood, your Highropes and your Morgans against us and disclaim responsibility for what they do."

"Captain Blood and the rest are not admirals of England!" cried Lord Julian.

"Are they not? How do I know? How does Spain know? Are you not liars all, you English heretics?"

"Sir!" Lord Julian's voice was harsh as a rasp, his eyes flashed. He instinctively he swung a hand to the place where his sword habitually hung. Then he shrugged and sneered: "Of course," said he, "it sorts with all I have heard of Spanish honor and all that I have seen of yours that you should insult a man who is unarmed and your prisoner."

The admiral's face flamed scarlet. He half raised his hand to strike. And then, restrained, perhaps, by the very words that had cloaked the retorting insult, he turned on his heel abruptly, and went out without answering.

The Milagro, with her consort, the Sudaiga, rolling after her, steered a south by westerly course, then veered to the southeast, round Cape Tiburon, and thereafter, standing well out to sea, with the land no more than a cloudy outline to leeward, she headed directly east, and so ran straight into the arms of Captain Blood, who was making for the Windward Passage. That happened early on the following morning. After having systematically hunted his enemy in vain for a year, Don Miguel chanced upon him in this unexpected and entirely fortuitous fashion. It was also, the way of Fortune that Don Miguel should thus come upon the Arabella at a time when, separated from the rest of the fleet, she was alone and at a disadvantage. It looked to Don Miguel as if the luck which so long had been on Blood's side had at last veered in his own favor.

Misspelled Words Are Inexcusable

Careful Correspondents Will Consult Dictionary If In Doubt

Good spellers are both born and made. It is rather taken for granted that one spells accurately. A letter with misspelled words is quite inexcusable. It indicates indolence because no one need misspell a word if he will take the trouble to look it up. There are many careful correspondents who are not naturally good spellers who keep a dictionary close at hand for that very reason.

It is probably true that our grand-parents were better spellers than we are. They were drilled in the old-fashioned way, being obliged to stand up and spell before the whole school. "Headmarks" in the spelling classes counted those days and if a boy or girl spelt "Hemorrhage" with one "r" the chances were they never forgot that that is the way not to spell it.

The old-fashioned spelling-bee has much to commend it. It is good discipline with a lot of fun to boot.—Detroit News.

Measuring Size Of Raindrops

Experts Discover They Are Larger In Summer Than Winter

Weather experts once set out upon the laborious task of measuring the dimensions of raindrops, and found that the largest were about one-sixth of an inch and the smallest one-fifth-hundredth of an inch in diameter. An interesting fact which was discovered was that raindrops are larger in summer than in winter, and larger in hot than in cold climates. At the moment of condensation of the water vapor to the liquid state, great numbers of extremely small drops are formed close together. As they fall they merge, and thus what we call raindrops are formed. The size of the drop when it reaches the earth depends upon the height from which it has fallen. Now, in summer, the air is warmer than in winter, and, therefore, clouds are formed at a greater height, where conditions are favorable for rapid condensation.

What Advertising Means

A Good Definition of Advertising in Condensed Form

"Advertising—the force which enables the modern business man to disregard the distance between himself and his prospective customers."

"The force which gives him a million eloquent tongues with which to tell his business story to the world."

"The force which enables him to create new desires and to point out new ways of supplying old needs."

"The force, which, properly directed, will make a worthless business prosper, but which, no matter how cleverly applied, cannot give permanence to an enterprise founded on falsehood."

"The force by which a business may be built or wrecked, and which, in the last analysis, brings to him who uses it just that measure of success that his efforts deserve."

SPRING WEATHER
HARD ON BABY

The Canadian Spring weather—one day mild and bright, the next raw and blustery, is extremely hard on the baby. Conditions are such that the mother cannot take the little one out for the fresh air so much to be desired. He is confined to the house which is often overcast and badly ventilated. He catches cold; his little stomach and bowels become disordered and the mother soon has a sick baby to look after. To prevent this an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets should be given. They regulate the stomach and bowels, thus preventing or relieving colds, simple fevers, colic or any other of the many minor ills of childhood. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Toronto Mother Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"Toronto, Ontario.—"I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a splendid medicine to take before and after confinement. A small book was in my door one day advertising Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines, and as I did not feel at all well at the time I went and got a bottle of Vegetable Compound right away. I soon began to notice a difference in my general health. I was full of aches and pains at the time and thought I had every complaint going, but I can truthfully say your medicine certainly did me good. I can and will speak highly of it, and I know it will do other women good who are sick and ailing if they will only give it a fair trial. Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills are splendid for constipation. You are welcome to use my letter if you think it will help any one."—Mrs. HARRY WESTWOOD, 646 Quebec Street, Toronto, Ontario.

The expectant mother is wise if she considers carefully this statement of Mrs. Westwood. It is but one of a great many, all telling the same story—beneficial results.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for use during this period. The experience of other women who have found this medicine a blessing is proof of its great merit. Why not try it now yourself?

Proof Of Radio Value

Raising Funds Quickly For Relief of Tornado Victims

A striking commentary on the value of the radio broadcasting station as a means of reaching the great bulk of the people was heard over local radio sets when Station WLS, Chicago, announced that $43,000 had been raised by that station in and around Chicago in one day in aid of the hundreds rendered homeless by the recent tornado in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Kentucky.

Other radio stations in the United States have been taking up the cause of the homeless people who were caught by the twister, but as yet the Chicago station leads in the matter of funds raised.

Commonwealth Has Many More Inhabitants of British Descent. Though Canada, including its islands and territories, is 750,000 square miles larger than the Commonwealth, and is much more than twice as old, containing the date of settlement, and is a much older British possession, it had only about 60 per cent. more people on last census. St. Paul, Quebec, (Special).—That there is not a village or post office in Canada that cannot provide a case of genuine relief by Dodd's Kidney Pills has been shown again and again. Traced Thief To Bulgaria

Man Who Stole Liberty Bonds in Ohio in 1920 Is Arrested

The search for a thief who got away with liberty bonds in Ohio in 1920 was ended in Sofia, Bulgaria, recently when a Bulgarian was sentenced to prison for 18 months. The securities, amounting to $1,500, were stolen while in transit between two banks in Ohio. The bank was still unexplained when a Bulgarian giving the name of R. C. Russell later and was given cash for liberty bonds to the amount of $1,500. The return of the securities to an American bank brought the information from their numbers, that they had been stolen. Russell was located, charged with the theft, tried, found guilty and sentenced.

The Ensemble Costume

One of the smartest modes of the season is the ensemble costume, which is worn in both tailored and more dressy models. An attractive ensemble is here shown. The coat is of wood-brown charmeuse, lined with the same printed silk of which the dress is made. Coat No. 1032 is a straight-line model with slightly bell-shaped sleeves and convertible collar, and may be made in either of two lengths. The pattern is cut for ladies and misses' sizes 34 to 44 inches bust, and requires 3 1/2 yards of 54-inch material and 3/4 yards of 36-inch lining for size 38. The dress, No. 1036, is a one-piece frock with box-pleat in center front, small front yoke and cascading sleeves. The collar, cuffs, front plait and pockets are of contrasting colored crepe. Cut in sizes 34 to 44, the 38 size requires 4 1/2 yards of 36 or 40 inch material, and 3/4 yard contrasting material for trimming.

Present arrangements ensure the settlement of at least 1,000 persons on western lands served by one railway alone. Arrangements have been made for the settlement of large groups of families used to farm operations, on the land in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Swedish Women Score Victory

Employees of State Have Secured Same Pay As Men

Sweden's working women have scored an important victory through the official recognition by the government of the principle of equal pay for men and women in the employ of the state. The recognition appears in the form of a recommendation submitted to the Riksdag by Minister of Finance Thorsen.

In justifying his proposal Mr. Thorsen points out that the civil service is virtually given women the same privileges as men, so far as actual work is concerned, and it is only logical, therefore, that the salary of any given position should remain constant, whether the service is rendered by a man or woman.

A RELIABLE TONIC FOR SPRINGTIME

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Give New Health and Vigor

Not sick—but not feeling quite well. That is the way most people feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite feeble, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. Pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or there may be twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Any of these indicate that the blood out of one's system is more or less impure.

Do not dose yourself with purgatives, as many people do, in the hope of getting rid of the trouble. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you that this is true. What you need in the spring is a tonic that will enrich the blood and build up the nervous system.

Pink Pills do this speedily, safely and surely. Every dose of this medicine helps to enrich the blood, which clears the skin, strengthens the appetite and makes tired, depressed men, women and children bright, active and strong. Prove the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when the system is run down by a doctor's decision to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, who says: "About a year ago I was badly run down. My appetite was poor. I did not sleep well and my nerves were all unstrung. I could not go upstairs without stopping to rest. As I was a man, I did not feel like a doctor's decision to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in the course of a few weeks I felt like a new man. As an all around restorative I can heartily recommend this medicine."

Take these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, at 50 cents a box from "The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Another attractive feature. No matter how elaborate the pattern, no how simple—the price will be the same, just twenty cents (20c) each.

Shropshire Ram From Ontario Farm going to "E. B. Ranch."

Ex-Minister E. B. Little, of London, who owns and operates the famous Belvoir Stock Farms, at Delaware, Ont., comprising more than 800 acres, has just sold a thoroughbred yearling Shropshire ram to the Prince of Wales, and he will be shipped shortly to the Prince's ranch in Alberta. The ram is a real aristocrat and can trace his lineage back almost as far as the Prince of Wales. Experts of the federal department of agriculture selected the sheep for the Prince.

Berlin Is Checking Professional Begging

Meal Checks Instead of Cash Proves Effective Method

An effective method of getting rid of professional beggars has been devised by the Berlin Women's Club. It has issued books of coupons in denominations of five and ten pennings, which Berlin families can purchase with a view to handing these meal tickets to beggars.

The beggar takes them to the municipal district welfare office of his district, whereupon he is given a free meal. At the same time his case is looked into by district welfare workers. Professional beggars never come again to a house in which they receive a meal check instead of cash. In fact, the sign furnished to such families for display and reading, "Alms are here given only in the form of meal checks," is usually enough to scare them away.

Holds Grain Futures Tax Is Ultra Vires

Privy Council Dismisses Appeal of Province of Manitoba

The much disputed Manitoba Grain Futures Tax Act of 1924 has been declared ultra vires of the province of Manitoba, and therefore of no legal value under the British North America Act, providing for the constitution of the Dominion of Canada.

A judgment handed down the judicial committee of the privy council has dismissed the appeal taken by the attorney-general of the province of Manitoba against the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada, which held that the Manitoba act providing for the collection of a tax by the province from sellers of grain for future delivery, was ultra vires and beyond the powers of the province.

Miners Decorated By King

Received High Praise For Case Of Exceptional Bravery

Two colliers were reward recipients of the King's praise at a royal investiture in Buckingham Palace. These men, Vincent Elwick and George Wilson, were receiving the Edward Medal for bravery in a pit.

When a fall of rock occurred at Merton Colliery in Durham, two of their companions, Francis McNally and John Place, were imprisoned by a heavy collapse of stone. Although portions of the roof continued to crack and fall, and there was danger every moment of all four being finally entombed, Elwick and Wilson went to the rescue.

"The King said he was very pleased to meet and to reward them in a case of exceptional bravery," declared Elwick after the investiture.

Ontario To Take Alberta Coal

Announcement was made in the Ontario house by Premier G. H. Ferguson that in May the railways would commence to transport 100,000 tons of coal from Alberta to Ontario. No provision was made in the agreement, he said, that the railways would carry coal at cost. The premier stated that the Alberta Government was seeking to let the eastern province obtain a good quality of coal.

THE BLESSING OF PENTECOST

Golden Text: Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Acts 2:38.

Lesson: Acts 2.

Devotional Reading: Joel 2:23-32.

The Text Explained and Illumined

The Coming of the Holy Spirit and the Effect Upon the Observers, verses 1-13. Before He left His disciples, Jesus gave them a great commission. They were to convince others that He is the Son of God, that He lived and that He will again come to the world, and that He had arisen from the dead and ascended into heaven. "Jesus had been in Christ had come to the world," was a truth which the world would not readily accept. Only through power given them from on high could they now accomplish their great task.

On the Day of Pentecost that power came. There was a sound as of wind and there was an appearance as of fire—symbol of the Holy Spirit. The disciples found themselves praising God in words that sounded strange to themselves and incomprehensible to others, but the important, never-to-be-forgotten fact was that they then realized that the Spirit of God which had been in Christ had come to the world, and that He was to abide with them as their Strengthener and Helper, that He it was who through them would make the Christ known to the ends of the world.

There is nothing repulsive in Miller's Worm Powders, and they are as pleasant to take as sugar, so that your children will refuse them. In some cases they cause vomiting through their action in an unusual stomach, but this is only a manifestation of their cleansing power, no indication that they are harmful. They can be thoroughly depended upon to clear worms from the system.

UNEMPLOYED DEMAND HALF MILLION RELIEF

Half a million dollars to be immediately appropriated by the provincial government for the relief of wholly or partially unemployed workers in Alberta was the demand made by a deputation of unemployed men that waited upon the government in a two-hour interview on Monday morning. The relief was requested on the basis of trade union rates, or full maintenance as an alternative, which was acknowledged to be the slogan of the movement.

Premier Greenfield, on behalf of the government, definitely refused to consider such a proposal. Nothing of that sort could be undertaken, he said, and the government's position will be that it will continue the policy already in vogue, according to which relief is given to physically unfit and to others as may be found necessary on investigation of reported individual cases.

In addition, it was pointed out, an extensive programme of public works, involving the expenditure of about $3,000,000, will soon be under way, providing employment for large numbers.

The many local friends of Mr. Jack McCoubrey will regret to learn of his death, which occurred at Vancouver last week end, following a brief illness. Mr. McCoubrey was in Blairmore last year to organize the local Elks, later taking up organization work at Coleman. It was during his stay in Coleman that he was taken ill and later moved to the coast.

The whist drive held in the Lodge Hall on Monday night by the members of Vimy Chapter, O.E.S., was not so largely attended, but was nevertheless enjoyable. The prize winners were: Gentlemen's first, Mr. McNabb, of Lethbridge, on a draw with Allan Young, of Frank. Gentlemen's consolation, Maurice Bond. Ladies' first, Mrs. J. J. Murray, of Frank. Ladies' consolation, Miss Laura Lord, drawing from Miss J. Nicol. Supper was served and dancing ensued for two hours to music by Mason's orchestra.

The Anniversary Services at the Union Church, marking the eighth birthday of the union of Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist denominations in this town, were largely attended on Sunday last. The speaker at both the morning and evening services was the Rev. E. G. Hansell, pastor of Westbourne Baptist Church, Calgary, and his discourses were much enjoyed. Special anthems were rendered by the choir. So great was the rush on Sunday night that the building was packed to the doors and about a hundred were turned away, being unable to get in.

John T. Stirling, chief inspector of mines, was in The Pass from Edmonton last week end. We understand that examinations under the Mines Act for third-class certificates will be held in Blairmore and other nearby towns starting on May 6th; and that examinations for first and second-class certificates will be held here on June 10th to 12th inclusive, and for mine surveyors' certificates on June 12th. No application for examination will be considered, unless it is received by the chief inspector of mines at least thirty days prior to the date on which the examinations are to be held, and must be accompanied by the documents required by the Mines Act and the entrance fee.

"The Private Secretary," staged at the Union Hall, Hillcrest, on Tuesday night, under auspices of Turtle Mountain Lodge, Knights of Pythias, was well received. The troupe were introduced to the large audience by Mr. Atkinson, the C.C. of Turtle Mountain Lodge, who in turn at the close took occasion on behalf of his lodge, to thank those taking part in the play for the performance staged without charge, also the Hillcrest local union for free use of their hall, and the Hillcrest Amateur Orchestra for valued services rendered. Following the play, supper was served to members of the troupe and their friends from Blairmore, also to the members of the committee. The supper was served in the K. of P. Hall by a committee of Pythian Sisters. The proceeds of the evening's performance, amounting to about sixty dollars, were handed over to the Carlson family.

The question of solving the reduction of the high cost of living has been met in the Fernie and Michel districts by continuous work, steady pay and the opportunity afforded merchants to compete for the hard-earned dollar.

The death of Mrs. W. W. Brown, an old and respected citizen of Fernie, occurred on Wednesday of last week, following an illness of several weeks' duration, brought about by an accident she sustained on February 17th. Mrs. Brown was 70 years of age and was born in Brampton, Ontario. The funeral took place at Fernie on Saturday afternoon.

An anglers' club has been organized at Claresholm, with a membership fee of 25 cents. The name given the club was "Claresholm Fish and Game Protective Association." At their first meeting they decided to secure 50,000 trout fry to stock streams in that vicinity. Why not get together and organize for similar good work in this section?

The Rothschilds have secured mining interests at Kimberley.

The wonder is that old-fashioned tables lasted so long without wading of chewing gum to hold them together.

The federal government has collected $907,028 in all for royalties on coal mines in the province of Alberta during the last five years. There is yet an amount of $34,829 outstanding.

Mr. Carlyle, of Winnipeg, a special engineer in the employ of the Federal government, was in town on Tuesday, looking over the cribbing work that has been done in this neighborhood during the past couple of months under the superintendence of Mr. A. OTTAWA TO AID COOKING INDUSTRY

OTTAWA, March 24.—The federal government has planned to make Canada self-contained in the matter of fuel supply. A subsidy may be granted to coking plants.

It is stated that the department of mines, as a result of its investigation into coking processes, will report in a highly favorable manner upon the economic feasibility of turning bituminous coal mined in Canada into a fuel which is the equal of anthracite coal, and which can be turned out at a cost of from $2.50 to $3.00 a ton less than the cost of American anthracite.

While the report has not yet been made public the government is in possession of the results of the experiments, and is preparing legislation which it is anticipated will be far-reaching in its effect.

NEW ELK LODGE AT NANTON

A lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was instituted in Nanton last Thursday night by Dr. J. S. Gibson, of Calgary, district deputy grand exalted ruler, with 123 members and a considerable number in addition whose applications had been received, but who were unable to attend on that night. A large number of members of that Order from Calgary and Blaimore were in attendance to assist in the work. The ceremonial work was put on by the Calgary team and the floor work by the one from Blaimore.

The officers of the Baby Elk lodge are:

Past Exalted Ruler—Geo. S. Ferris.

Following the institution of the lodge, a banquet was served at the Auditorium Hotel, and then some of them went to bed—Nanton News.

A new swimming pool might help justify our contention that Blaimore has too much of a floating population.

Mr. R. M. Young, commissioner for the Western Canada Coal Operators' Association, denies the statement made in the legislature by P. M. Christophers to the effect that the operators were or had been guilty of advertising in the Old Country for miners and then had failed to provide work when they arrived in Alberta, and that as a result starvation stalked the miners in the face. Mr. Young stated that aside from one instance, when some twenty years ago one of the companies in the Crows' Nest Pass had brought out some miners to fill a real need, he was not aware of any such advertising.

"THE PRIVATE SECRETARY"

The following mention of "The Private Secretary," as staged at Pincher Creek, was given by the Pincher Creek Echo last week, and is well worth reproduction:

"The term 'Amateur Theatricals' was simply forgotten while the play 'The Private Secretary' was being played to a big audience in the Opera House on Tuesday evening, by the Elks' Dramatic Club, of Blaimore.

"The Private Secretary" is a well known play, and has been seen by many, who knowing the possibilities of enjoyment of the play alone, made a point of being in attendance, and so much like professionals were the cast, especially the character of Rev. Foss, Spalding (the private secretary), played by Mr. G. L. Stevens and Mr. Cattermole, Sr., played by Mr. R. Wootton, that a keen sense of enjoyment was evinced throughout the whole of the play. In fact it was difficult to realize that Mr. Stevens was merely acting a part, so much to the manner born did he seem, and continuous laughter greeted his every appearance. Mr. Wootton, who played his part, and vigorously played his vehement mannaismis, especially when his nephew, evidently one of his sensitive points, was mistaken for 'Catterpillar' and various similar monstrosities. His disgust at finding his nephew in the company of a weakling, having mistaken the Rev. Spalding for him, and the nephew, Douglas Cattermole, cleverly portrayed by Mr. W. Bird, having assumed the identity of the Rev. Spalding, in order, for a time, to evade him and his friends, Harry Marsland, financial obligations, combined, created many mirth-provoking situations. Mr. Marsland, M. F.H. was played by Mr. W. Thoms with natural dignity, his greatest asset being his splendid appearance when the irascible Cattermole, Sr., recalled of their college days and pranks, some of which evidently did not coincide with the rules he had laid down for the bringing up of his daughter, her girl friend and his nephew, who formed his household. The nephew's part was played by Mr. C. J. Devine and also was pleasing in the maintenance of his study of Spiritualism, however, was becoming an obsession and in her desire to converse with the medium, which she mistook the Rev. Spalding, created several nerve-wrecking experiences.

Especially in one of the scenes did Mrs. Douglas, who played the part of Edith Marsland, show her ability in her part, by becoming fantastically frightened at the medium, her friend and companion, Eva Webster, played by Mrs. E. A. Harper, carried off her part successfully, as did also Mrs. Rhynas, who played the part of landlady to Mr. Cattermole, Jr., and her wife, and shielding him from his creditors, which reached a climax when the uncle, whom she excluded was mentally unbalanced, had to be dealt with, with considerable patience and strategy. Of these creditors, the most persistent was Sydney Gibson, a Bond Street tailor, whose greatest ambition was to become a visitor, at least, of the 'upper crust' with whom he wished to 'soar.' Mr. Upton was especially well received in this part, for having been formerly a Pincher Creek resident, and played a part known well to the greater part of the audience, which was easily opposite to his everyday life, save in that capacity he does happen to be, not a Bond Street tailor, but nevertheless a tailor of considerable renown. His checked trousers, cutaway coat, boucotte and necktie were handsomely becoming and added much grace and distinction to his lavish scheme of collecting his accounts. His questionable success in being included as a breakfast guest at a 'meet' at the Marsland home proved disastrous in the fact that the champagne 'indeed was light,' as was also the tailor's head and wandering feet. It also had the effect of developing a wondrous sense of humor and the tailor guest had to be taken strictly in hand. Mr. W. B. Pinker played two minor parts quite ably, while they give little scope for description, have an important part in the carrying out of the farce.

One of the outstanding themes of the play are the warnings to the Private Secretary that, 'if he is discovered he is lost,' which in all the confusion of keeping together his goods and chattels consisting of hat box, umbrella, parcel, an orange, a bottle of milk and his most-of-all-important-gloves, created the impression that he had become private secretary to a lunatic asylum, added to which was the exceeding inconvenience of having mislaid his bath-bun and was most dreadfully hungry 'here.'

Finally a climax was reached and a happy everafter was cited for the young people and a general straightening out of relationships, which with the singing of the National Anthem concluded an entertainment that will be long remembered.

The Pincher Creek Concert Orchestra greatly added to the enjoyment of the evening, playing selections before and between scenes, which were heartily applauded.

The play was put on under the auspices of the local I.O.D.E., the members of which are highly gratified with its success, realizing, however, that had the roads been in passable condition it would have been a question if the Opera House would not have had a tested capacity.

Congratulations are heartily extended to the Blaimore Elks' Dramatic Club and hopes will be entertained for their re-appearance here on some future occasion.

The Elks' Dramatic Troupe leave by tomorrow morning's train for Fernie and Cranbrook, appearing at Fernie Friday night and at Cranbrook on Saturday night. This will be the last appearance of 'The Private Secretary' and the local amateurs will next be seen in a new play, probably in the summer or early fall.

Why Boys Leave The Farm

The question suggested by the above heading has been the subject of countless discussions, debates, newspaper and magazine articles. It has never been satisfactorily answered, nor has the problem itself been solved. As a matter of fact no completely satisfactory answer can be given because the reasons why boys leave their farm homes are as varied as the characters of the boys and the farms from which they come.

Although no one general reason can be advanced for boys leaving the farms, it is nevertheless well that continued attention should be devoted to the subject. To some extent the subject should receive community attention, but more particularly it is one to be studied and the problem solved by the parents of the boys. As has already been stated, what influences one boy to leave the farm does not make any appeal whatever to another boy. In the case of the second boy the urge to go arises from some entirely different cause.

If a boy on the home farm is becoming restless, losing interest in the farm, becoming discontented and unhappy, it is inevitable that sooner or later he will leave unless the reason for his dissatisfaction is learned, and, if possible, removed. Because father and mother have been satisfied to remain on the farm is no reason in itself why son or daughter should be content to do so. The important thing is to develop a keen desire for farming and farm life.

Among the reasons usually advanced why the boys—and girls, too—leave the farm are the attractions offered by the bright lights, the amusements, the companionships of the cities. Undoubtedly they have their drawing power, although, all too frequently, they prove will-o'-the-wisps. Again, the shorter hours of work in city offices, shops and factories make strong appeal to the farm lad who has a continual round of chores and tasks from dawn to dark. City work appeals to him as easier, more pleasant, and as offering greater opportunities for advancement and culture. Too often the boy feels that he is merely a hired man on the farm instead of a partner in a family enterprise. The present is not satisfactory to him while the future holds out no great promise of anything better.

Then there is, of course, those boys to whom farm life does not appeal, but who have a real yearning to become doctors, lawyers, teachers, merchants, mechanics, business executives. On the farm they are, and always would be, square pegs in round holes, just as there are city residents who yearn for the land. It seems to be easier, however, for the farm boy to drift into a city job than it is for the city man to establish himself in rural life.

But is there not another aspect of this question to which too little attention has been given in the past? Is it not a fact that farmers do not "magnify their calling" as they ought to do? Recently a farm boy wrote an article on this much discussed question as to why boys leave the farm, and this boy's views are worthy of serious consideration by farmer's and farmer's wives. He asked what encouragement there was for boys to remain on the farm when their fathers and mothers were continually crying down the farm and its work. Instead of helping to keep their boys on the farm such tactics simply drive them away.

Further, this boy's observation led him to the conclusion that many farmers only provided full educational facilities for those of his children who were going into some other occupation than farming, and that the boy who was willing to stay with the farm was only given as much schooling as the law insisted upon. In other words, the boy who elected to stay with the farm was denied those advantages and privileges of self improvement granted to those who had determined to leave the farm and go into other lines of work.

It is not denied that many farmers have had hard struggles and many discouragements, but constant dwelling upon these does not help to better conditions, nor is it calculated to inspire the children to remain with the farm. And if many of these farmers could fully realize the struggles and discouragements of thousands of unemployed in the cities, and of the fear ever present with other thousands that they may be "laid off" next week or next month, they would get a truer perspective of their own situation.

It cannot be expected that a high spirited ambitious boy looking forward on life is going to stay with the farm if his parents are continually running it down. Such a boy instinctively makes up his mind that his home is going to be different, that when he marries he is not going to condemn his wife to a life of which he hears his father and mother make constant complaint.

After all, it is not so much the isolation of rural life—which is largely passing with the advent of the rural telephone, radio and the motor car—nor the long hours of work, nor even the disadvantages which some seasons bring, that causes many boys and girls to leave the farm. Rather it is the atmosphere of the farm home and the fact that its disadvantages and discouragements are dwelt upon so much and alienation maintained regarding its undoubted advantages in so many ways over city life.

If in those farm homes where a feeling of gloom and a complaining spirit has developed, these tendencies were relegated to the background, and the boy who elects to stay with the farm was given equal advantages with the others, it is probable that more boys would choose to stay with the farm.

Testing Lignite in Europe

Saskatchewan Product Goes to Germany To Be Briquetted

Practical tests of briquetting Saskatchewan lignite coal are to be made in Germany and Czechoslovakia. It is expected that the tests will take between six and eight weeks and that the results will be known in time to permit of the remodelling of the Bismarck plant in June if the tests prove as successful as anticipated.

Fifty tons of the Bismarck product were shipped in barrels to St. John's in two carloads. The coal was loaded into a steamer for Rotterdam and will be tested under the Siemens and Thyssen systems in Germany, and the Bismarck-Danek system in Czechoslovakia.

Investigations carried out over several months have led the private interests considering the taking over of the Bismarck plant to the conclusion that the three systems mentioned above are the most modern and practical.

Another Warning Against White Bread

Professor Says Appendicitis Is Traceable to This Food

Mrs. Nellie Chamberlain, wife of the minister of health, who was present at a lecture on "Dietary Causes of Badly Chosen Diet," given before the People's League of Health in London, advocated the use of wholesome food. She said that she had always given her own children wholesome bread. The lecture was delivered by Professor H. H. A. Plimmer, who said that the spread of the dread malady known as per-berit was proved to be largely due, as far as the white race were concerned, to the consumption of white bread, and the increasing prevalence of appendicitis in late years was traceable to the same source.

Mrs. J. H. Hallenbeck, 11½ W. Larch Avenue, St. Catharines, Ont., writes:—"I was in a gas explosion; it left me with a weak heart, and my nerves were all gone. I suffered everything; couldn't sleep, or endure any excitement, and when left alone I felt as if I could scream. I took all sorts of medicine, but nothing helped. I had been told that I had a weak heart, and I felt so much better I continued with them until I had used five boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and had taken them I did not need any more. I cannot praise, or recommend, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills too highly after all they have done for me."

Britain Receives Substantial Income From Foreign Investments

The British board of trade issued an estimate the other day of that part of the national income which is earned abroad. The earnings for British investments in foreign countries are put down at slightly more than one billion dollars. If the average interest rate was 5 per cent, the investments must have amounted to nearly eighteen billion dollars. The British board seems to have saved a bit from the wreck. Hebridean Colonization At Vermilion, Alberta

Scottish Immigration Aid Society's New Scheme

The settlement of Hebrideans in Western Canada has been one of the most satisfactory phases of Dominion colonization in recent years, regarded from all the various viewpoints. The delegation from the Hebrides, headed by the Very Rev. Canon Macdonnell, which toured the Dominion last fall and closely investigated Hebridean settlement with a view to stimulating and expanding such colonization. I found justifiable, expressed itself as completely satisfied with what had been accomplished and the happy and prosperous state of Hebridean settlers in Canada.

The Scottish Immigration Aid Society was formed by a group of philanthropic individuals who were keenly appreciative of the benefits of Hebridean settlement in Canada, and were desirous of extending it to the entire west coast of Canada and Scotland. It introduced a novel note into Canadian colonization by erecting a number of cottages on land in Alberta for the reception, assimilation and training of newcomers from the Hebrides, where the immigrant, after travelling the thousands of miles by land and sea, instead of facing the hardships of pioneering, found a home awaiting him on arrival.

The society's plans for 1925 are equally novel and ambitious. Recently, through taking advantage of the provisions of the Empire Settlement Act, the society was able to complete the purchase of a substantial block of land just north of Vermilion in Alberta, consisting of nearly 50,000 acres. This block is diagonally intersected by the Old Knife-Whittford branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which provides convenient and adequate transportation facilities.

Through funds secured by participating in the terms of the Empire Settlement Act, the society is at present engaged in building houses on each quarter section of the block. As soon as these are ready one hundred eighty families will be brought out from the Northern Scottish Islands to occupy them. Everything will be found on their arrival in complete readiness for immediate residence, and the settlers be placed many years ahead as compared with ordinary pioneer settlement. Each family will be assisted in getting farming operations under way immediately with a loan of $1,500. These arrangements, in combination with the proven quality of application and perseverance possessed by Hebrideans, form the best augury for success.

To Enforce Game Laws

Game Men Are Assured Grouse To Be Protected

That every precaution would be taken to curtail the shooting of prairie chicken in larger numbers than was allowed by law was the assurance which the central executive of the Central Saskatchewan Game Protection Association has received in a letter from the deputy minister of agriculture. The letter followed a protest being lodged by the Game Protective Association after seeing a man in their territory to investigate a complaint of killing chicken on a wholesale scale preferred against a farmer of the Rosetown district. The farmer had been issued a permit to kill the chickens in order to prevent their destroying his grain which was still in stocks in the field.

Camp Craft Secrets

New Booklets of Canadian National Railways Gives Useful Hints to Fishermen, Campers and Sportsmen

The out-of-doors appeals to all Canadians and few countries in the world have been so favored in the matter of holiday places. In every province are magnificent fishing streams and lakes, hunting or camping grounds. In many cases, however, the novice about to start out for a holiday in the lake, river or woods wonders just what provision he should make in the way of clothing and outfit, and also what food supplies, bedding, etc., he is likely to need. To meet the requirements of such Canadians, planning for outings in the lake, river or woods districts of the Dominion, a splendid book, entitled, "Camp Craft and Woodlore," has been issued by the Canadian National Railways and is being placed in the hands of ticket agents for distribution. "Camp Craft and Woodlore" is dedicated to those who would answer the call of the open, according to the foreword to this booklet. In it are found many helpful hints gleaned from the experience and learning of years and related in the hope that their telling may widen the appeal of Canada's great natural playgrounds and add to the numbers who have discovered their charm and delight.

The booklet gives the prospective camper information on what to wear; how to carry equipment; what to eat; how to locate camp sites and how to sleep well. Health instructions and first aid in accidents are given prominently, as also are weather signs, compass variations, and instructions on what to do when "lost in the woods." Altogether, the prospective camper will find this booklet one of the most valuable that has yet been placed at his disposal.

Pacific Means Peace

The Natural Barrier Separating Japan From United States

Our navy could not cross the Pacific and successfully wage war, says General Mitchell in defending his air service ideas. If that is the case, it must be equally true that the smaller Japanese navy could not cross the Pacific and successfully wage war. Is not that about as near to an ideal situation as we could get? If neither navy could cross the Pacific and successfully wage war, the preservation of peace becomes a practical military necessity on both sides, does it not? And isn't that what we want? Were not the naval limitation treaties designed to produce just such a balance as that?—Burlington Express.

French Girl Discovers New Fuel

Solution of Sugar in Basis for Gasoline Substitute

Remarkable claims are made for a new auto fuel, named Leurex, after its discoverer, 17-year-old Irene Laurent, daughter of a well-known French chemist. The product, which is understood to have for its basis a solution of sugar, is said to cost less and go farther than any other of the so-called substitutes for gasoline now tried.

A party of prominent automobile engineers who tested the new fuel in a long run on an ordinary machine, are quoted as expressing themselves astounded by the results.

The fuel used in the test was made the night before by the chemist Laurent in his own kitchen.

CLOSE DIVISION IS LOOKED FOR ON THE BUDGET

Ottawa.—Presentation of the proposed sub-amendment to the budget has set political gossip afoot with speculation as to the government majority on the budget. Two years ago, Robert Forke, Progressive leader, presented an amendment along similar lines. It was voted down by a combined vote of Liberals and Conservatives. But then came the main government motion on the budget, and Conservatives and the great majority of Progressives found themselves arrayed together against it. The result was that the budget only carried with a majority of eight.

The view prevalent in political circles that a similar situation is now practically inevitable. The Conservative amendment—which still stands—will, it is expected, be voted down by a combined vote of Liberals and Progressives. But afterwards will come the main government motion. On this, such is the view expressed. Conservatives and Progressives will again vote in the negative. It is in previous close divisions the government has always found a certain measure of support to the left of the speaker. But the general impression is that the government majority will be small.

Predicts Aerial Warfare

Sir Chas. Higham Says Britain Will Never Again Fight Aggressive War

Chicago.—The next war will be fought in the air some twenty years hence, Sir Charles Higham, English advertising man, declared in address to the English Speaking Union. Chicago will be in as great danger of destruction by aerial bombs as New York or San Francisco, he declared. Britain and the United States never will oppose one another in war and Britain never will fight an aggressive war again. Britain, he said, "is the policeman of the world and is interested only in stopping any aggression on any part of the English-speaking race by another nation, whatever its color." France, he said, has the greatest army on earth, and with an air force equalled by none could, "with the forces and weapons at their disposal, wipe out London from the air within four hours."

He said he did not seek to be an alarmist and was speaking for himself.

Manitoba Loss Heavy

On Outstanding Loans

Report States 449 Borrowers Have Abandoned Their Farms
Winnipeg.—The Provincial Government concludes a loss of $669,202 on outstanding loans, aggregating $2,422,100, to the 74 rural credit societies in Manitoba. This represents an estimated addition of $236,157 to the already recognized loss of $433,045. A report tabled in the legislature by Premier John Bracken shows that borrowers numbered 3,062, of whom 49 have abandoned their farms. Forty-four societies are now being headed by the official administrator of the province.

Manitoba Pool Elevators Seeking Incorporation

Winnipeg.—A bill to incorporate the Manitoba Pool Elevators with a capital stock of $1,000,000, was ordered reported by the private bills committee of the Manitoba Legislature. The company, under the bill, is seeking authority to construct or acquire facilities for handling grain for the Manitoba Co-operative Wheat Producers, Limited, and its members. It aims to improve methods and reduce the cost of handling grain and to curtail speculation, manipulation and waste in the process.

Ukrainians Face Starvation

Reports From Komarno District, Manitoba, Have Been Confirmed

Winnipeg.—The Canadian Bank, Ukrainian language paper, says, "We have certain evidence that the poverty of the Ukrainian farmers near Komarno is terrible, and that if there is no prompt action, dozens will perish of hunger. The paper states that several families are living on the charity of the municipalities and that when present supplies are exhausted, 'death awaits them.'"

Dr. J. A. Hunter, Tonlon, who has worked for the Presbyterian Church among the Ukrainians of the Komarno district for 20 years, said that he believed the report to be correct. All crops and garden produce in the district was destroyed by frost last year, and the people had no means of support.

Says Oriental Labor Retards B.C. Prosperity

Delegates Claim Wages Paid Do Not Circulate Amongst White Population

Victoria, B.C.—One hundred and eighty-one delegates representing 80 different associations and societies, met here recently and discussed the Oriental problem in British Columbia and means for its solution. Speakers declared that Oriental labor had been a great influence in retarding prosperity in the province, as money paid to Orientals was lost to circulation among the white population. It was declared that the lumber industry payroll last year was $50,000,000, and that one-half of the amount was paid out to Orientals.

Eight Killed In Explosion

Oil Lighter Blows Up In Harbor At Hamburg

Hamburg, Germany.—Eight persons were killed, and three others seriously injured, when a heavy explosion occurred on the oil lighter Saturn, in the harbor here.

The force of the explosion tore apart the lighter, a vessel 219 feet long, buried her anchor, weighing more than 400 pounds, over several nearby buildings, and blew the body of one of the workers aboard the ship to the roof of an adjacent house. The explosion is believed to have been due to gases formed by the residue of oil on the lighter, which exploded when the worker started an oxygen blast apparatus.

Australia Plans Own Defence

Unwilling to Allow British People to Bear Burden

Adelaide, South Australia.—Speaking here, Premier Stanley Bruce declared the defence ideal of the Commonwealth was a squadron of 10,000 war cruisers, with submarines. He asserted that Great Britain had assisted Australia to keep away a possible hostile navy, but that Australia could not allow the heavily burdened people of Britain to bear all the burdens of Australian defence.

Trouble In Balkan States

Seizure of Airplane Pilot With Maps Causes Suspicion

Vienna.—Bulgaria and Jugoslavia are on the verge of a wordy diplomatic war, symptomatic of the suspicious atmosphere of the Balkans.

Dispatches from Belgrade say that a Bulgarian airplane has been seized in Jugoslav territory, and that photographs of Jugoslav frontier fortifications were found in it. The pilot and passenger, the Belgrade report asserts, were Bulgarian officers.

Bulgaria insists that the plane was privately owned, and that its pilot and passenger have no official status. The men probably will be tried by a Jugoslav court martial.

Canadian Manufacturers Emphasize the Importance of the Woolen Industry

Toronto.—To induce the Canadian farmer to raise more sheep, the Canadian manufacturer to use more Canadian wool, and the Canadian consumer to wear more Canadian woolen goods—this is the three-fold objective of the convention of Canadian Woolen and Knit Goods Manufacturers, which opened here.

In his annual address, President Dobbie laid emphasis on the importance of the woolen industry to Canada, and urged the necessity for safeguarding this industry in every way.

EASTERN CANADA FAVORS THE NEW TAX REGULATIONS

Montreal.—The tax on the exportation of electrical power will certainly, it should think, have the effect of discouraging Americans from tampering with Canada's natural resources," J. S. Norris, vice-president and general manager of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, declared, discussing the provisions of this year's budget, at Mr. Norris did not think American consumers would be nearly so anxious to get Canadian hydro-electric power with the added tax. Asked whether he considered this was a good thing for Canada, he replied: "Yes, I do."

Government assistance to coaling plants, which are expected to be established at strategic points, is not likely to make any difference in Canadian Pacific Railway freight rates on coal shipments from mines, either in the east or in the west. A statement was made by Z. N. Todd, freight traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, that the rate for carrying coal was not at a point where it could not be lowered, and that no change was contemplated.

Mr. McGill has been making an investigation into the matter since the last conference between the two premiers in Ottawa, the points particularly in question being some technical features of the accounting already made. It was understood that the federal authorities would not be ready to go on with the actual consummation of the transfer, as agreed upon between the governments, until this inquiry had been completed and reported.

IS NO COMBINE AMONG WESTERN COAL DEALERS

Ottawa.—The Western Canada Fuel Association "has not operated to the detriment of or against the best interests of the public, and I feel the future can, and will, be amply safeguarded by this act," states Commissioner David Campbell, in his report of the investigation into an alleged combine among coal dealers in Western Canada, under the Combines Investigation Act.

The report was tabled in the House of Commons by Hon. James Macdonald, minister of labor.

Regarding the Retail Coal Dealers' Association of Winnipeg, Commissioner Campbell stated:

"I am of the opinion that the discussion and fixing of prices is one of the main purposes of this association, but until that is carried to the point that prices are unreasonable or unfair, no fault can be found in that direction. I have already expressed my view that the prices charged by retail dealers, or fixed by the association, cannot be said to be unreasonable or unfair, having regard to all circumstances. And, realizing the efficacy of the Combines Investigation Act, and its protection being so easily accessible to rich and poor alike, one can rest quite content as to what may happen in the future."
